Privacy Statement:

Your information is being collected by Australian Multicultural Community Services Ltd. We collect, use, hold and disclose your personal information (which includes your name, address, telephone, email address, and other details) in order to match you to a volunteer opportunity, to provide information to you, to respond to your queries and to otherwise provide our services to you. If you choose not to provide your personal information to us, we may not be able to match you to a volunteer opportunity, provide you with the information you want or respond to your requests. We may disclose your personal information to our employees, contractors, volunteers, agents, partners, sponsors, professional advisors and service providers for the purposes described above and to government bodies, regulatory authorities and emergency services (where required or authorised by law to do so).
